

Black History Month

The Rebellious Life of Mrs. Rosa Parks

Join us for a film viewing!

The film chronicles Parks' childhood, her activism before and during the historic Montgomery Bus Boycott, her work for Congressman John Conyers in Detroit, and her involvement in causes such as voting rights, anti-apartheid, reparations, fair housing, women's rights, and the fight against police violence.

This is a community event open to students, families, educators and community partners.
