A Message from Superintendent Dan Goldman

It is our vision that every student is educated, equipped and inspired to achieve their full potential and enrich their communities.

To the school boards, superintendents and communities across Clatsop, Columbia, Tillamook and Washington counties:

This report is produced in the context of a crippling global pandemic, a national reckoning on racial injustice, and a literal reinvention of public education in our communities. After nearly a year supporting students through drastically different educational landscapes, readjusting the roles of educators, implementing wholly new curricular and pedagogical practices, and helping our families and partners adapt to constantly shifting guidance and expectations, it feels surreal to look back at what we've all accomplished together. A primary learning through this tumultuous period has been the centrality of public education in the lives of individuals and in the fabric of our communities - I can think of no better way to positively impact the world than through the critical work of educators. And I can think of no better group of educators than those I get to work with every day - our staff at Northwest Regional ESD and our school district partners.

In the enclosed pages, I'm proud to present our 2020-25 Strategic Plan, 2019-20 Annual Report and the 2021-22 Local Service Plan. These publications highlight our most recent accomplishments and lay out our plans for the future. These aspirations have been shaped by your voices, our staff's expertise, and a deep commitment to dismantling the systemic bias and inequities that produce disproportionate outcomes for our children.

We look forward to our continued collaboration with you in pursuit of our vision, and bound by our values of student success, equity, partnership, and innovative service.

With appreciation,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of a stylized 'D' and 'G' connected by a horizontal line.

Dan Goldman | Superintendent

Our Service Area

Land Acknowledgement: Every community owes its existence to those who took part in making the history that led us to where we are today. Some were brought to this region against their will, some were drawn to leave distant homes in pursuit of a better life, and some have lived here for countless generations. We acknowledge that our service area overlays the traditional lands of the Atfalati, Nekelim, Siletz and Tillamook peoples. In our daily work in service to this region, we aspire to honor with gratitude the land itself and the people who have stewarded it throughout the generations.

Highlights from 2019-20

Student speakers pose with state lawmakers at the Washington County legislative summit hosted at NWRESA's office in Hillsboro.

The 2019-20 school year spanned a period of unprecedented hope and optimism (Student Success Act implementation) and unprecedented crisis (the COVID-19 pandemic). Through it all, we are proud to share our team's unwavering display of our values: student success, partnership, equity and innovative service.

Student Success Act Implementation

When lawmakers and advocates called on our public education system to improve outcomes for students who have been historically marginalized, we took our role to heart. Our activities to advance this landmark legislation included:

- Coached and trained school districts to deepen community engagement efforts and ensure high-quality plan submissions for the Student Investment Account.
- Advised on research-based and culturally sustaining practices, to help districts match proven strategies to community-identified needs at scale.
- Developed plans to expand leadership and mentorship in high-need areas identified by districts, specifically in early literacy, social emotional learning and racial equity.
- Identified systemic barriers for historically marginalized students and assisted district leaders to prioritize opportunity gaps in student investment account plans.
- Identified ways to expand high-quality early learning access and ensure alignment with the K-12 system.

Here's a snapshot of how we've contributed to community engagement in support of school district and early learning planning efforts:

- 10 meetings co-facilitated with school leaders across the region to support community-based root cause analysis.
- 20,292 survey responses coded to identify investment strategies that will improve outcomes for focal populations.
- 130 educators trained in empathy interviews, a strategy to deepen understanding of community need.
- 117 conversations with parents and caretakers in support of early learning planning.

Read more about this work in the report from the technical assistance team that supported Student Investment Account planning, in the summary printout for legislators (also attached in the addendum to this document) and in the Northwest Early Learning Hub's January 2020 report to partners.

Regional Educator Network Planning

The 13-member Regional Educator Network coordinating body from the Northwest Regional ESD region met in the fall of 2019 to launch its work.

Led by Mariana Zaragoza, Ph.D., the Northwest Regional ESD Regional Educator Network coordinating body met 12 times during 2019-20. The Educator Advancement Council (EAC) tasked the body with creating a plan that centers educator voices to spark meaningful systemic changes for our region's public educators. The 13-member coordinating body identified retention and recruitment, specifically for educators of color, as the plan's focus areas. Highlights from 2019-20 and the resulting plan include:

- Nearly 50 empathy interviews conducted with regional educators who are Black, Indigenous and people of color (BIPOC).
- Seven change ideas identified for testing across the region.

Read 2020-23 plan produced by the coordinating body.

Expansion of Equity Initiatives

We continued to deepen our work as an antiracist organization by addressing intrapersonal, institutional and structural racism through professional learning and innovations to governance. Highlights include:

- Launched the Cascade Alliance for Equity \(CAFE\), a collaborative effort with Clackamas and Multnomah ESDs to advance equity; CAFE hosted two conferences drawing more than 300 educators each.
- Our Ninth Grade Success Network received a prestigious national award from the Carnegie Foundation for work to improve outcomes across all marginalized student groups.
- Our Board of Directors laid the groundwork for the establishment of a Board Equity Policy Advisory Committee.
- The Equity and Family Partnerships team laid the groundwork for a Fall 2020 launch of our Antiracist Multicultural Continuum (attached in the addendum to this document) to guide and assess our organizational culture, policies and practice.

Yashica Island, professional development specialist, received a standing ovation at the fall CAFE conference for sharing her personal story and "why."

Response During the COVID-19 Pandemic

A family receives a food bag and kindergarten prep learning materials from the Migrant Education Program.

When COVID-19 first hit our communities, we redoubled our convening efforts. School leaders gathered virtually and often to coordinate a consistent, unified response across the region. County public health authorities, school district superintendents, school nurses and others met to coordinate prevention, crisis response, and decision-making aligned to Oregon's "Ready Schools, Safe Learners" guidance. Our program teams also jumped into action:

- Migrant Students and Families: Our Migrant Education Program (MEP) distributed 1,500 face coverings and masks, 100 bottles of hand sanitizer, 175 food bags and instructional materials. The team worked directly with hundreds of families to provide emotional support and meet other needs.
- Child Care Assistance: As child care programs rapidly stood up emergency services, our Child Care Resource and Referral team met with providers in Clatsop, Columbia and Tillamook counties on a weekly basis to keep them informed about the latest regulations, distribute emergency supplies and connect providers to grant opportunities.

- Comprehensive Distance Learning: Over the summer, our technology and professional learning teams collaborated to build a suite of services, including training, online curriculum and an integrated learning management system, that would support our region's educators during comprehensive distance learning. Educators in our Early Intervention/Early Childhood Special Education and school-age special education programs swiftly established virtual supports for families and their children.
- Student Internships: Our Instructional Services team supported multiple internship programs, advancing students' career experiences despite challenging odds during the pandemic. Students in Columbia County gained experience at the Oregon Manufacturing Innovation Center, thanks in part to our STEM Hub. Students in Diverse Educator Pathways, a program to support aspiring teachers who are linguistically and culturally diverse, participated in internships that helped our Migrant Education Program and STEM Hub.

Interns meet with Daniel Ramirez, Ph.D., a Latino educator who works as the Interim Executive Director of the Educator Advancement Council.

I have many families I have worked with over the past 29 years and many great stories. This particular year has been challenging for all of us. One of my favorites this year was a grandmother who shared a picture of her high school grandson (with significant autism) doing his "distance learning" yoga. He is practically standing on his head with his Chromebook and a smile. His grandmother is always so proud of him and so positive about the school and staff who work with them.

I've been so impressed by the work the CTE program at Banks is doing, and supporting them has been so rewarding. Watching students learn to use professional software to design and produce shirts, laser-etched water bottles, and so many other things has been so much fun! I can't wait to see where the program goes.

Working with students who have hearing loss typically means working with technology and devices teachers and case managers are not always familiar with. I really appreciate that Beaverton educators are open to using new equipment and giving it a go with whatever piece of equipment I bring out. We often have to try different things before we get the perfect fit, and I'm so appreciative of how open and willing they are to use what gives their students the best access to their education.

When the COVID-19 pandemic hit, I collaborated with Clatskanie educators to distribute nine hotspots to students without internet access. With assistance from our technology team, we made sure the students were able to access all of the programs. I communicated between the families and the school district to explain the process of having hotspots. During the process, I was able to set up one family with a contact person who was able to help them gain access to health coverage. A few weeks later this family was impacted by COVID, and the Migrant Program was able to provide them with extra food bags and contacted their new contact person to provide them with a multitude of additional resources.

I've had the pleasure of working with Assistant Superintendent John O'Neill's team on several projects, and the Juntos program launch stands out the most. The district saw an urgent need to better support Latino young men on their path to graduation and college. We wrote a successful three-year grant to the Meyer Memorial Trust to launch Juntos—a research-based, culturally specific mentoring and family engagement program. John and his team were enthusiastic, responsive, equity-focused and highly collaborative in developing a program that would align with grant requirements and meet student need. They were a true pleasure to work with!

I absolutely love working in Gaston! I have a wonderful supportive special education and administrative team who value using a collaborative-based approach when it comes to problem-solving and providing excellent services to kids. This is especially important to me because each of us come to the table with a different lens, but when we work together, we are fully wrapping around that student and supporting their needs to be successful in the classroom.

The goal of the 9th Grade Success Network is to improve adult practices so 9th graders — particularly students who have been historically marginalized — will have culturally sustaining and engaging experiences. Last year, together with support from Hillsboro educators Morgan Quimby and Kori Sakamoto, all four 9th Grade Success teams were able to use data to make improvements at the individual student as well as system levels. Despite all the challenges the pandemic created, Hillsboro educators continued to show up for students. Bret Davis from Liberty High School led a cross-network collaboration that helped educators reach students while monitoring their academic progress. This work demonstrates how she and her fellow educators are shifting their practices in order to better serve students. Wylie Wan, Education Research and Data Specialist

The pandemic has been difficult for everyone, but it has been especially challenging for a remote community like Jewell where the internet can be difficult to access. However, one of the great aspects of a small school is its community. Every day, I see staff stepping up to collaborate and support one another. And during these days of remote work, the staff know that we are just an email, phone call or video chat away.

In Knappa, I primarily work with four talented case managers who coordinate services for students in special education. We plan methods and practices to support students' access to instruction and to the educational environment. As a group, we remove barriers to learning and help children and families explore and implement a variety of ways to augment learning. Students discover which methods work best for them and are able to gradually build their self-knowledge and their skills in advocating for their particular needs. I have learned of the power that caring administrators and teachers can have in creating a safe and inclusive learning environment, and how far compassion can go in helping students recognize and put into action their own unique strengths and talents. -Claire S., Occupational Therapist

When distance learning began, I had to find ways of reaching kids who have complex communication disorders virtually. I remember my first session with a young man who brought his pets. I have no pets, but I could bring my stuffies. So, surrounded by lizards and bearded dragons, we reestablished our connection while reading "Dragons Love Tacos." I have cooked with my students and shared journals, photos, books and video adventures with them. Through these experiences, I have strengthened my connections with their families. I look forward to the day when I can be in person at my schools again, but I also know my relationships with my students and their families have changed for the best and I hope it continues!

Being a speech-language pathologist has got to be one of the most rewarding careers one could choose. I have the opportunity to support Nestucca Valley students academically, socially and emotionally. I work as part of a dedicated team, alongside families, students, coworkers and community members, who share the fervent belief that all children can learn. Since we began working with Rainier School District, Northwest Regional ESD's business services team has been able to simplify processes while adding greater financial internal controls to safeguard district assets. We are constantly working to improve financial processes for the district. For example, when Rainier had difficulties balancing the budget this past year, our teams were able to devise a plan to remedy the deficit. Because of our partnership and collaboration, Rainier was able to end the year with a positive ending fund balance without negatively affecting students.

The Northwest STEM Hub has been collaborating with Scappoose School District and local community partners to establish the Columbia Works paid internship program with applied learning opportunities for local youth. This would not have been possible without the incredible work of Scappoose educators and counselors!

Last year the speech team at Gearhart Elementary, Sam Spies and Beth Catt and I, teamed up for a weekly group focusing on autism awareness for three elementary students identified with autism. With the support of their general education and special education team, the three of us collaborated to provide instruction focused on helping them understand how autism gave them both challenges to overcome and gifts to celebrate. After meeting over several months, teachers and parents shared the huge gains in how the students advocated for themselves by explaining their needs as it related to their autism. A huge success!

What makes Sherwood administrators unique is how open and eager their leadership is to learn about racial equity. I can feel their energy when I step in the room. I can feel their passion and their desire to learn how to be more equitable and inclusive for their students and school community. When I asked the group about how we could make people care about microaggressions, one staff member said, "I don't know, but I'm here to learn and help figure it out." Cuddles to Sherwood for being positive optimists. That's what makes their team of educators stand out!

Typically each winter, I offer a parent workshop specifically focused on helping parents and caregivers communicate better with their children. Many families who live in the Tigard-Tualatin School District attend these workshops, and later share that it is so beneficial to collaborate and learn with families whose children are experiencing the same challenges. Offering this program to our families is one of the most rewarding parts of my job and is a key component of preparing children ages 1-5 for kindergarten.

Tillamook School District has been a strong and consistent partner in offering parent cafés to families in their schools. With leadership from Tillamook educators Jennifer Guarcello, Molly Sappington, Dixie Lee and Connie Sutton, Parent Cafés build parent-to-parent connections, teach parents about child development and promote resilience. TSD has brought together more than 100 parents and caregivers since 2018. Participants later said they felt a sense of connectedness with others and appreciated knowing they are not alone and have similar challenges as parents.

The education team at Warrenton-Hammond School District works collaboratively to support our students and their best interests. Teachers and specialists often work together to think about and discuss the students' needs holistically. They often exchange ideas on how to connect with students and their families to promote their educational and social-emotional well-being. Teachers exemplify the same "flexible thinking" that they encourage in students in order to better adapt to the changing needs of our students.

About the Local Service Plan

Every fall, we work collaboratively with our school district partners to develop next school year's Local Service Plan. Services in the Local Service Plan are funded through the State School Fund (SSF) and local property taxes. The plan includes Core Services, which are shared among school districts; and it includes a Menu of services available for individual districts to purchase with Local Service Plan service credit allocations or through other funding sources.

The Oregon State Legislature has defined the purpose of Oregon education service districts:

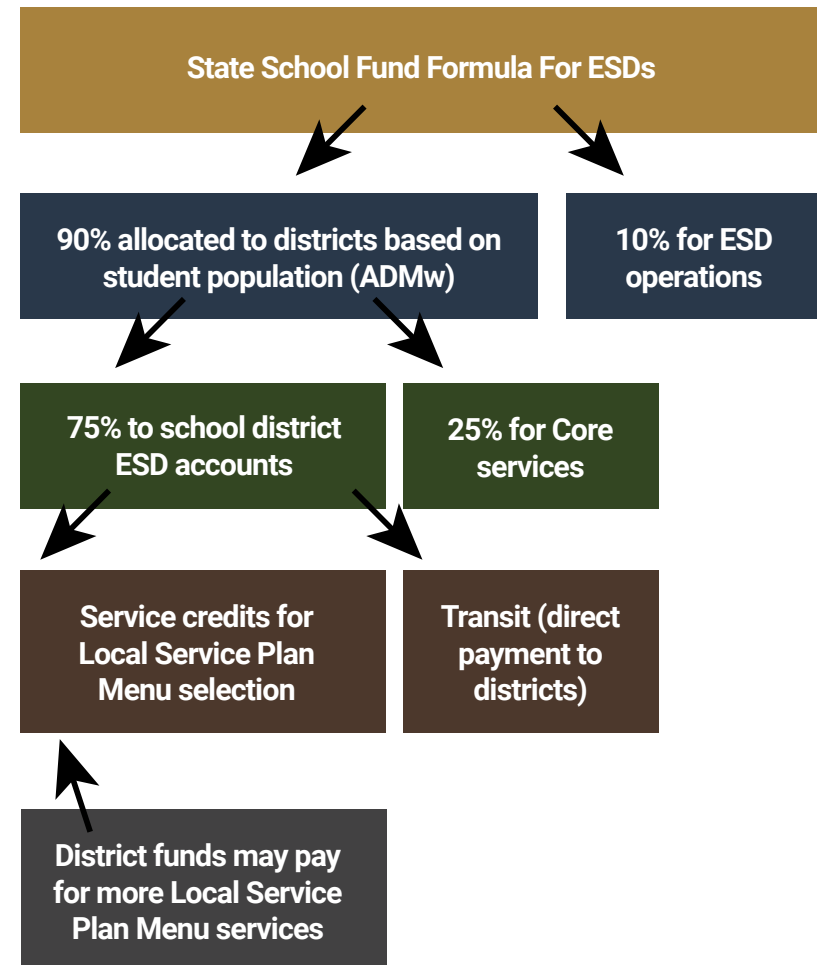

"The mission of education service districts is to assist school districts and the Department of Education in achieving Oregon's educational goals by providing equitable, high quality, cost-effective and locally responsive educational services at a regional level."

The Local Service Plan must address four areas as outlined in ORS 334.175:

- Special Education
- Technology
- Instructional (referred to as school improvement in ORS)
- Administrative

New this year, the Local Service Plan must also include our Student Success Act plan, as required by HB 3427 Section 25.

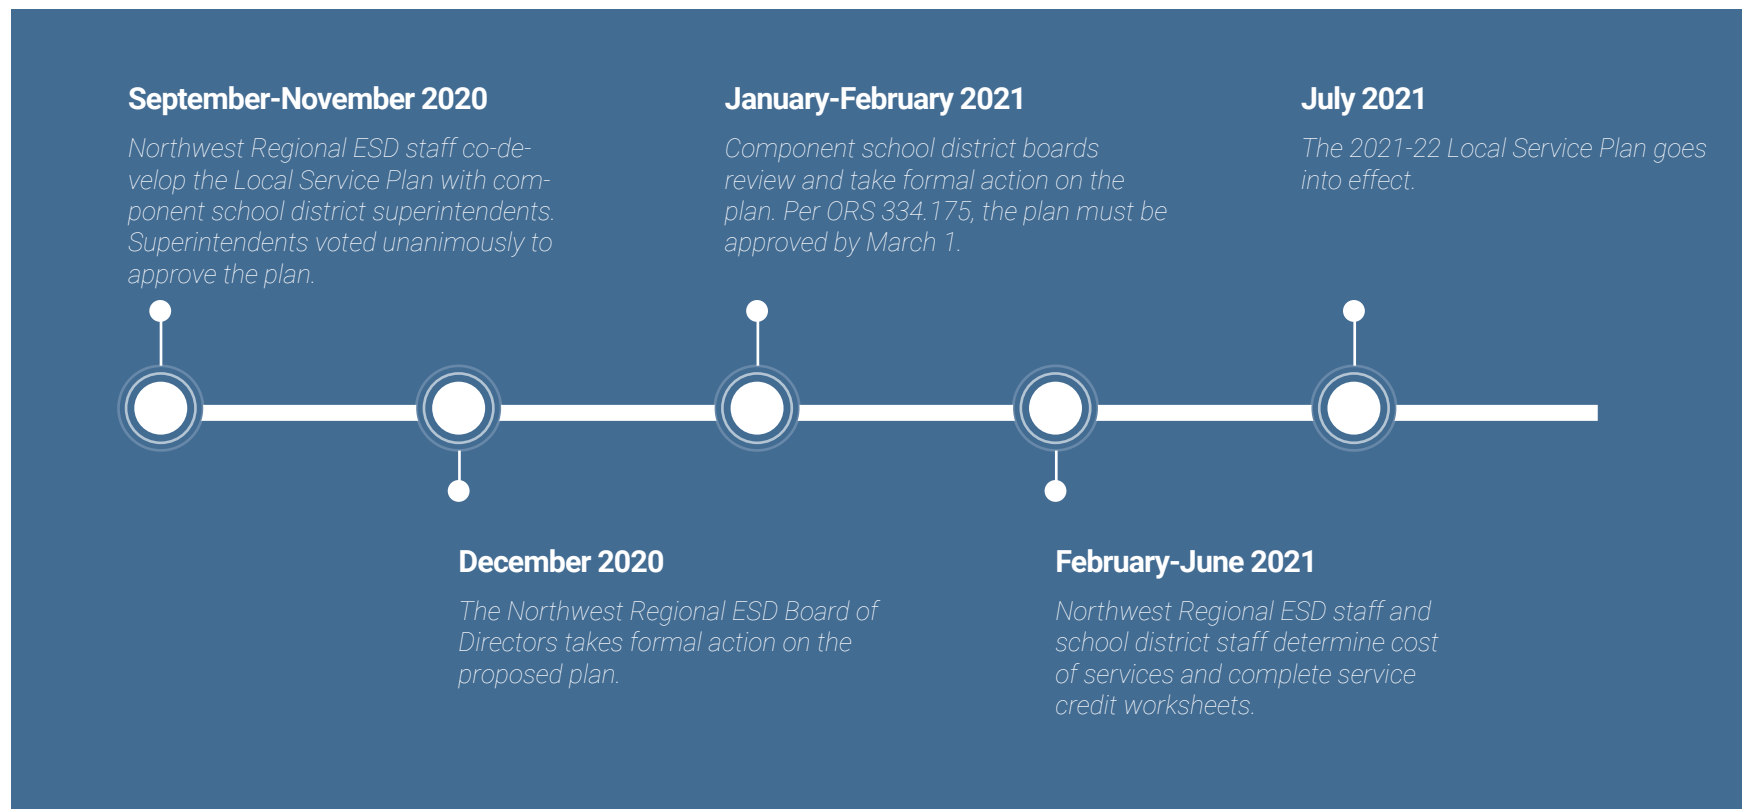

Local Service Plan Funding Flow

Timeline for Development and Approval Process

After school district superintendents approve the proposed Local Service Plan, our board of directors adopts the plan. The proposed plan must then be approved on or before March 1 by resolution of two-thirds of the component school districts that are a part of the education service district and that have at least a majority of the pupils included in the average daily membership of the education service district, as determined by the reports of such school districts for the preceding year, enrolled in the schools of the school districts.

Local Service Plan - Core Summary

Assumptions - $9.1 Billion State School Fund (SSF)

1. Available revenue is projected based on 49% allocation in year one of biennium
2. Flat to declining enrollment region-wide
3. Districts with declining enrollment between 2019-20 and 2020-21 "held harmless" and not further docked for projections
4. No additions to Core Services are proposed. All remaining money will flow to county allocations
5. Increase (approx 2.5%) is projected for cost of technology services due to inflationary factors offset by PERS rate reduction
6. Increase (approx 2.5%) from $4.67/ADMw to $4.79/ADMw for Professional Development Strands

ANTIRACIST MULTICULTURAL CONTINUUM

INTEGRATIVE AWARENESS

CONFORMITY

An organization in the conformity stage complies with standards, rules and laws and behaves in accordance with socially acceptable conventions of the group or community. Organizations in this phase:

- Intentionally or unintentionally exclude historically underserved and marginalized groups.
- Intentionally or unintentionally enforce institutional racism, including formal policies and practices, teachings and decision-making approaches at all levels.
- Enforce attitudes of white supremacy and overtly diminish other ways of thinking and being.
- Are tolerant of a limited number of token people of color while maintaining the structures of white privilege throughout the organization. Any challenge to this privilege is viewed as discriminatory against the majority. Racial superiority attitudes remain intact.
- Avoid open discussions about race, oppression or marginalized people among staff and organizational leaders.
- Accept the concept of colorblindness as the norm.

SYMBOLIC

An organization in the symbolic stage uses symbolism to represent equity, diversity and inclusion. Organizations in this phase:

- See themselves as committed to inclusion of people of color and affirm pronouncements of equality but are relatively unaware of continuing patterns of white privilege, paternalism and community control.
- Recruit people of color for staff positions and committees but not people who will publicly express their views or make waves.
- Think the primary solution to inequality is through time-bound celebrations of other cultures or including a token ritual into an otherwise white, Eurocentric calendar of events; inject other viewpoints/units of study into an otherwise white-dominant history/ curriculum.
- Make official policy pronouncements regarding multicultural diversity but offer little in terms of contextual change in everyday cultural activities or decision-making.
- Experience high attrition rates of staff of color without investigating or understanding the underlying causes.
- Reflect incongruence between intentions and results.

AFFIRMING

An organization in the affirming stage actively supports and affirms the position of equity, diversity and inclusion. This is the first stage of an identity change for an organization. The intent to change is present, but the results do not match the intent. Organizations in this phase:

- Desire to eliminate discriminatory practices and inherent advantage of one racial group over another.
- Sponsor programs of equity and antiracism training.
- Encourage teams to investigate and challenge the existence and impact of institutional racism.
- Work to expand views of diversity by including socially oppressed groups, but decision-makers and/or decision-making groups in all levels of the organization may still conform to the status quo and the discriminatory practices of the larger community.
- Provide equal access to resources rather than equitable access.
- Discuss and develop plans to be accountable to historically oppressed students and communities, but these actions are not yet fully implemented or inclusive of those voices.
- Are conscious of institutionalized white power and privilege but inconsistently focus on the attributes, voices and assets of people of color and other historically marginalized groups in the workplace.
- Are unwilling to, or unskilled at, substantially altering the way things have always been done.

ANTIRACIST

An organization in the antiracist stage actively incorporates processes against racism. Staff are engaged and supported to seek understanding of how racial ideology is manufactured and how it impacts the lived experiences of people they serve daily. Organizations in this phase:

- View historically marginalized groups as an asset.
- Include the contributions and interests of diverse racial, cultural and economic groups in determining their mission, policies and practices.
- Create conditions for staff, students and community partners to consistently disrupt and negate systemic and structural racism and inequity while actively supporting equity and social justice.
- Have leaders who acknowledge and decenter white privilege and who will ensure resources are allocated equitably so that those who need more will receive more.
- Audit all aspects of school life to represent antiracist commitments.
- Have policies and procedures that are actualized for inclusive decision-making, pedagogy and community partnerships.
- Provide and lead antiracism, equity training for all staff.
- Are structured in a way that holds the group accountable to marginalized groups and confers identifiable power to those groups.
- Acts as an ally to communities who are battling social oppression.
- Have adopted an antiracist identity that is recognized and accepted by the members of the community.
- Foster a sense of community and mutual caring that is seen and felt by all.

INTEGRATIVE AWARENESS

An organization in the integrative awareness stage is fully inclusive of all marginalized groups. Institutional structures are in place to make sure all identities are integrated into the decisions for the institution. Integrated awareness exists in all aspects of the institution. Organizations in this phase:

- Experience equity as the expected norm or the new status quo of the community.
- Incorporate equitable practices into every aspect of the institutional structure.
- Sponsor programs that educate staff and other community members about the inequities surrounding multiple marginalized identities (e.g., intersectionality of race and gender, sexual orientation, disability, etc.).
- Employ staff whose demographics match the racial identities of the communities being served.
- Promote an environment where people of color and white people are able to positively identify with their own racial groups while also acknowledging that other aspects of their identity (e.g., gender, talent/abilities, and unique experiences) contribute to their personhood.
